Walking With You To Meet Jesus Caminando contigo para conocer a Jesús
Dear Friends in Christ,

As we continue our efforts to work cooperatively as a cluster, it is natural that people will have questions as to specific impacts of this system. Each of the parishes in our cluster remain parishes in their own right. As such, they will handle many things at the local level, including parish finances. With the exception of mutually agreed upon joint endeavors (such as making an order of goods in bulk for the cluster to save money for each parish) and the compensation of the priests in terms of salaries and benefits (each parish pays a percentage of the total cost of each priest), parish finances remain separate.

The Catholic Church and the Archdiocese of Omaha have strict laws and policies governing parish finances. Each parish is required to have a finance committee (although parishes are permitted to have a joint council, like pastoral council/finance committee). There are also requirements to reporting church finances to the committee (usually financial documents), and internal control policies (such as the pastor being on every account that uses a church’s tax identification number to make sure funds are being used appropriately for the parish and the policy where one person makes out checks and a separate person signs the check).

There is a misunderstanding that since the parishes are clustered that our finances are shared. Apart from the noted exceptions above, this is not the case. Please be assured that the lay leadership in our parishes and the priests with whom they work take the safeguarding of the temporal goods of the church very seriously.

In Christ,
Fr. Pat

Queridos amigos en Cristo,

A medida que continuamos nuestros esfuerzos para trabajar cooperativamente como un grupo, es natural que las personas tengan preguntas sobre los impactos específicos de este sistema. Cada una de las parroquias de nuestro grupo siguen siendo parroquias independientes que tienen sus propios derechos. Como tal, manejarán muchas cosas a nivel local, incluidas las finanzas de la parroquia.

Con la excepción de los esfuerzos conjuntos mutuamente acordados (como hacer un pedido de bienes a granel para que el grupo ahorre dinero para cada parroquia) y la compensación de los sacerdotes en términos de salarios y beneficios (cada parroquia paga un porcentaje del total costo de cada sacerdote), las finanzas de la parroquia permanecen separadas.

La Iglesia Católica y la Arquidiócesis de Omaha tienen leyes y políticas estrictas que rigen las finanzas de la parroquia. Se requiere que cada parroquia tenga un comité de finanzas (aunque las parroquias pueden tener un consejo conjunto, como el consejo pastoral / comité de finanzas). También hay requisitos para informar las finanzas de la iglesia al comité (generalmente documentos financieros) y políticas de control interno (como que el pastor esté en cada cuenta que use el número de identificación fiscal de la iglesia para asegurarse de que los fondos se usen de manera apropiada para la parroquia y la política donde una persona hace cheques y otra persona firma el cheque).

Existe un malentendido de que, dado que las parroquias están agrupadas, nuestras finanzas se comparten. Aparte de las excepciones mencionadas anteriormente, este no es el caso. Tenga por seguro que el liderazgo laico en nuestras parroquias y los sacerdotes con quienes trabajan toman muy en serio la protección de los bienes temporales de la iglesia.

En Cristo,
P. Pat

Catholic Charities in Omaha is seeking funds to help in stocking their food pantry for the Omaha area. Last year Catholic Charities helped over 57,000 people. All proceeds will go directly to “Emergency & Supportive Food programs”.

Last year, SVDP helped over 2,000 people just from our Norfolk area. SVDP is supported entirely by donations with no help from any government agency.
